Story of the Week

God draws the kids

'I will never forget when the cry went out to the children to come inside – and there came a harvest.' You can read the story and watch the video clip of a family Bible study that grew and grew – on your LCA website www.lca.org.au

'What we really are looking for ... is a vision for doing something other than just making sure we have a house for Lutherans.'

This edition's 'Little Church' column features St Luke's Albury, who are trialling the concept of several congregations at the one location. Every month 'Little Church' brings you ways smaller congregations are thinking creatively and acting courageously, especially as they reach out to their communities.

The Lutheran. Full colour, 36 pages. 11 editions/year. Only $42(Aust), $44(NZ)

He has drawn up a sheet which will be left on the table as you enter the church where you can put your name, contact details and preferred time for them to visit. They will gradually make contact and arrange a mutually suitable time to visit. They would prefer to meet you in your homes, but if you would prefer, Pastor Mike is available at his office at the College.

STITCHING GROUP: Ieva Saulis has offered her home for Stitching Group next Tuesday from 10.30 a.m. We are listening to a message about the essential need for forgiveness and what a wonderful turning point it is when we do forgive, even in the most devastating circumstances. Please bring a small plate of food to share for lunch together, (either a savoury or a sweet contribution). All stitchers/knitters/crocheters welcome, or please just come for the fellowship we enjoy together.
