Story of the Week Never too old

Bernice's year as a deaconess student, aged 17, had been one of the best years of her life. At 71 years of age, happily and busily retired, she never dreamt she would study theology again. But then her life took a totally unexpected turn, directed by the Lord. You can read Bernice's story – on your LCA website www.lca.org.au

'Offering sanctuary is a form of non-violent civil disobedience. It has been triggered as a response to repeated government policies and actions that have failed to welcome the stranger and have put innocent lives at risk.'

(LCA Bishop John Henderson, 'Heartland' eNews, 5 February 2016)

Thousands of people showed support for asylum seekers last month by attending Stand for Sanctuary rallies in Australian capital cities and regional centres across the nation. More than 50 Australian congregations, including at least two Lutheran, have committed to offer sanctuary to asylum seekers facing deportation to off-shore detention facilities.
